DR. PAUL W. ROSSEY, PRESIDENT

PORTRAIT OF A PRESIDENT

The law of change did not overlook the administration of West Chester State. Dr. Paul W. Rossey assumed the College Presidency in the Fall of 1969 with great expectations and a contagious spirit. At one of his earliest appearances, a dinner for student leaders, Dr. Rossey spoke about the happenings at colleges and universities across the country. He became especially effective because of his willingness to listen and his desire to back responsible and directive change.

President Rossey relaxes at home with his wife and daughter, Joanne . . .

. . . at the Tanglewood picnic with the students, . . .

. . . and in his office with his secretaries.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl F. Sykes received guests at the Testimonial . . .

. . . which honored West Chester's former President, . . .

. . . faculty, who, with mixed emotions, expressed appreciation for . . .

. . . and, later, said their farewells to students and . . .

. . . what they had done, and wished them future success and happiness.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Acting Dean E. Taylor was aided by R. Jensen, W. Blair, and W. Benner.

Mrs. E. Taylor's "right hand" the past year was Mrs. B. Compton.

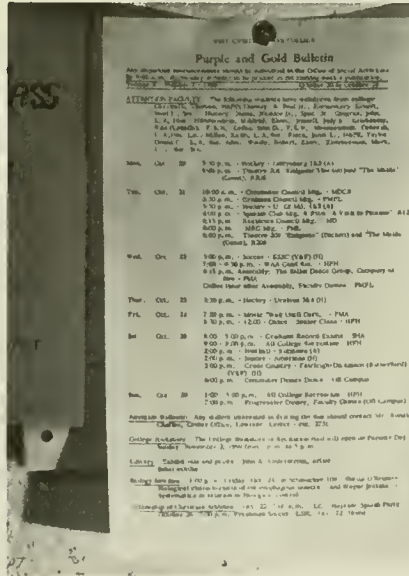

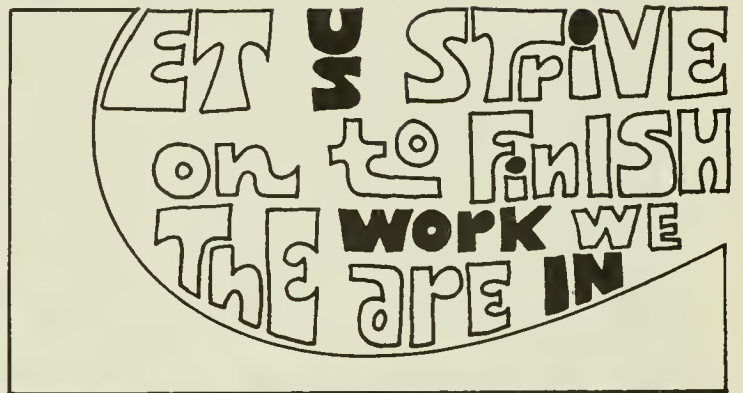

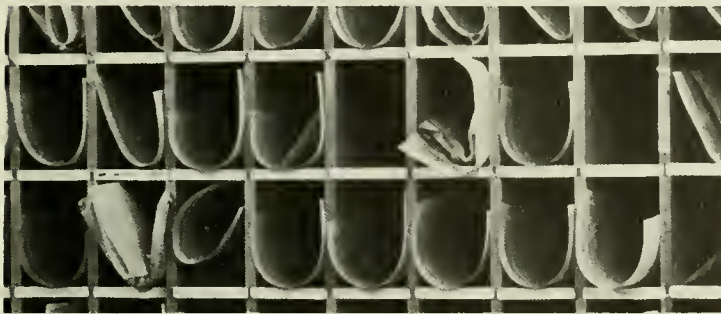

R. Reese and R. Nye directed all sports activities.

Student Affairs Council met bi-monthly to discuss student problems and activities.

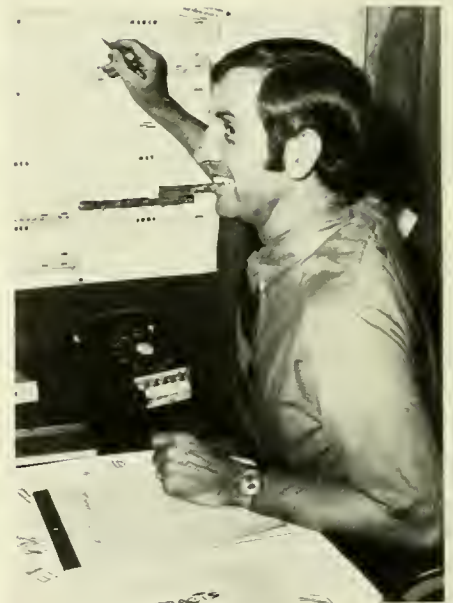

The General Assembly met bi-monthly and discussed student problems and activities.

IGA Director R. Norris assisted J. Clapp, Vice-President; L. D'Antonio, President; J. Aucker, Secretary; and D. Goudy, Treasurer.

IGA

Extremely active on the campus was the Intracollegiate Governmental Association. They met to discuss the problems concerning student life at West Chester. IGA sponsored numerous activities and weekends, and tried to stimulate student participation.

The College Union Committee chaired by Jane Sullivan—a great asset to IGA.

IGA ACTIVITIES

One of the several IGA sponsored concerts featured the Mag Men.

Saturday evening dances often highlighted the campus.

IGA college forums . . . interesting . . . informative . . . educational . . .

... worthwhile ... discussions ... current problems ... students ... professors ... excitement

There is responsibility in electing IGA reps.

Singing before a full house, the "Brooklyn Bridge" welcomed students back to State.

Supervising the activities of the men students are: J. Harrington, Assistant Dean of Men, G. Killinger, Dean of Men, and R. Jensen, Assistant Dean of Men.

Men's Resident Government works to solve the problems of the male residents.

Commuters talk things out in Men's Commuter Government meetings.

Commuter Dinner Dance . . . time for relaxing.

MEN'S GOVERNMENT

The Assistant Deans of Women are: D. DePew, E. Taylor, and A. Spiesz.

Bernice Bernatz, Dean of Women.

The ARA's were: J. Pryslak, S. Naus, K. Muchorski, P. Bailey, C. Shannon, P. Minnich, S. Wilks, G. Greenfield, and P. Cooper. Standing: C. Kelly, S. Dieffenbach, L. Meily, K. Kennedy, C. McGrath, T. McGillin, G. Chambers, D. Wardrop, P. Donahue, S. Kessler, C. Murdock, and G. Male.

Members of the Advisory Board were: L. Peterson, B. Hershey, R. Bryant, L. Shelton, E. Reinersmann, S. Rider, and C. Milhouse. Standing: D. DuBois, B. Bomberger, J. McLaughlin, B. Moran, Dean A. Spiesz, E. Godanis, K. Thompson, and A. Hertzog.

The Resident Advisors are: H. Kinsey, M. Alava, E. McKechnie, L. Lindsay, and L. Williams. Standing: J. Brozey, R. Morochko, M. Abram, S. Sayers, K. Boyle, E. Sloane, and L. Logan.

WOMEN'S GOVERNMENT

Residence Council had a difficult task keeping up with the changes in regulations.

Activities and problems of the commuting woman are considered by Commuter Council.

Commuting students who don't get together on campus enjoy their annual dinner dance.

The Big-Little Sister Committee succeeded in making the freshmen a part of the campus.

Change—Unusual animals tried to invade the campus at the Big-Little Sister Picnic.

Students took their families on tours, showing them what we consider familiar sights.

BIG- LITTLE SISTER

The Guidance and Counseling staff are: T. Williams, G. Kane, J. Edwards and C. Chalick.

Dr. White and his nurses can be found in the College Infirmary

STUDENT SERVICES

The Placement Office was staffed by E. Twardowski, W. Blair, and the secretaries.

CHRISTMAS

The light snow that covered the campus created a fairyland atmosphere for the Christmas celebrations at West Chester. In the dorms, trees were trimmed and windows decorated. Carols could be heard in all parts of the campus. Those who attended the White Supper enjoyed a festive dinner before going to the Annual Carol Service. The choirs and choruses entertained with traditional Yuletide songs, and everywhere students participated in peace and fellowship.

YEARBOOK CONFERENCE

Dr. A. Fletcher welcomed the interested guests to the Annual Yearbook Conference.

Mr W Landrum commented on the principles and techniques of yearbook production.

High school pupils discussed mutual problems and exchanged ideas at the conference.

QUAD ANGLES

The QUAD's Editorial Board meets to plan the new issue.

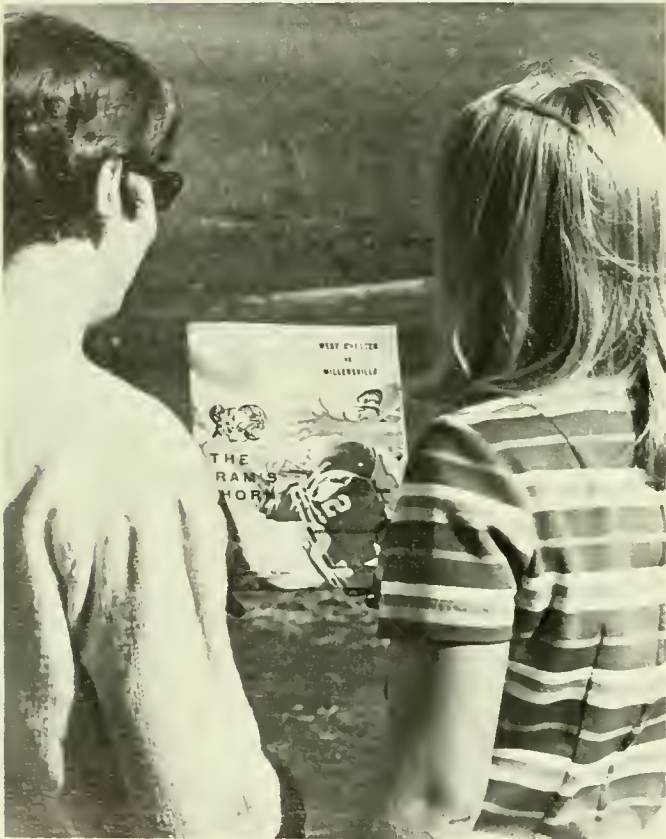

The staff of advisors comments on the editorial decisions.

Students rely on the QUAD's accurate coverage of all events.

SPRING WEEKEND

Spring Weekend, the BIG weekend full of happenings sponsored by IGA, kept a good number of the student body on campus last April. After the mid-semester examination period, students welcomed this refreshing change. The most rewarding experience was the great student participation . . . singing the songs of the two folk groups . . . dancing to the music of "Patti La Belle and the Bluebells" and "The Sound Investment" . . . listening to the sounds of "The Impressions" . . . Wasn't it a groovy Spring?

RAMPAGE WEEKEND

THEY ARE NOT LONG,
THE DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES

Rampage Weekend, 1969 . . . Friday, October 31, and the "Cartoon Caravan" was on its way . . . come as your favorite character . . . late Friday afternoon, those last minute touches on the dorms and floats . . . sure to win First Prize . . . that evening, "Sly and the Family Stone" . . . "Everyday People" in a fun-type concert . . . and Saturday offered all the traditional trimmings of a college Homecoming . . . the Golden Rampage Parade sparked a flame of spirit in the crowd . . . a spirit kindled by expectancy . . .

... a spirit which people carried with them to the game ... "Fifteen cheers for a mighty, mighty team" a spirit which was well rewarded ... the mighty, mighty Rams over Mansfield 61-8 ... a radiant Queen, Betsy Huston ... Semi-Formal, a nice change ... music by "Chuck Laskin", "Jay's V", "The Wellington Arrangement" ... Breakfast? ... Excited ... exhilarated ... exhausted ...

The Greek movement gained a strong footing at State as . . . demonstrated by Greek Weekend. The concert by the "Vogues" . . .

GREEK WEEKEND

. . . on Sunday night highlighted this occasion.

Another feature was the mock Olympics in . . . . . which the members of fraternities and sororities competed for trophies.

FACILITIES

Mr. Lloyd Black, Assistant Director, and Col. Robert Hannum, Director of Facilities keep a watchful eye on all the buildings under construction.

Mrs. Phiel is one of the many pleasant secretaries we find throughout the campus.

Even idealized institutions need practical organization. A college is only as strong as the functioning of its Business and Maintenance offices. Effective change can only come about as the result of effective planning. The housing and care of students, the performance of the Bookstore, the Post Office, the ARA Slater, and the upkeep of the buildings are essential to a growing campus. Those involved in these offices aid in West Chester State College's move to change with the times.

Heading the Physical Plant Dept., Mr. Sykes keeps our campus in top condition.

Mr. W. Peoples assists the Chief in executing the duties of maintenance.

CLASS OF '73

After their first day of classes and bookstore lines, freshmen relax at Tanglewood.

... name exchange at the dance ...

Cap Crew helped orient Frosh Turtles to life at State with a week's festivities geared to a theme of "Come out of your shell." After elections, class executives assumed duties of office and presided over the balance of the activities for the '69-'70 year. Victorious were: Bob Loeper, President; Terry Mulholland, Vice-President; John Gall, Treasurer; Sally Gilronan, Secretary. A successful year was promised as the Class of '73 made the adjustment.

A unique week ends in total frustration.

Their officers begin the history of '73.

The frosh easily became a part of . . .

. . . the campus, both in competition . . .

. . . and in contemplation.

CLASS OF '72

The sophomores found out that after the first year, it's all downhill.

These Physical Education majors know that Anatomy lab isn't all that bad.

In spite of the terrible dangers, everyone survived the Sophomore picnic.

Jim Williams, the President of the Class of 1972, Wayne Holt, Vice-President, Mark Roberts, Treasurer, and Jan Shaw, Secretary, worked to bring about greater sophomore involvement. Along with their Executive Council, they had planned many dances, picnics, and service activities. Deep enthusiasm was characteristic of the sophomore class, as was their contagious spirit. They have earned their reputation of being an involved class on our campus

Some hard work and good times built a Rampage float.

The officers of the Class of 1972 provided a concrete foundation.

The Executive Council . . . the long hours of planning . . .

Sophomores returned to campus with smiling faces.

Their work over, sophomores welcome the entertainment of Rampage.

Pitching pennies is one way to earn that extra money.

The Junior Ring Dance . . . memories of an evening spent dancing . . .

. . . socializing, laughing . . .

The highlight of Junior year was ordering . . .

. . . and receiving those treasured class rings.

For three years, life on West Chester's campus has been enriched by many contributions and achievements of the class of '71. The stimulating interest and the dynamic tempo of their participation in social and academic affairs has been indispensable to the college and to the students. Now, as they stand ready to accept a new position of leadership, we look back on their past experiences and hope all future endeavors will be as successfully accomplished.

Officers of the Class of 1971 are: Debbie Fintak, Vice-President, Carole Smith, Treasurer, Dennis Dool, President, and Linda Cohen, Secretary.

CLASS OF '71

Delighted with the decorations, the Class of 1971 also . . .

. . . appreciated the romantic atmosphere . . .

Nickelodeon Night featured cider, peanuts, and silent movies.

Spring called Juniors out of the dorm and onto the field.

. . . and their remembrances of this special night.

Cap Crew members greeted the eager frosh.

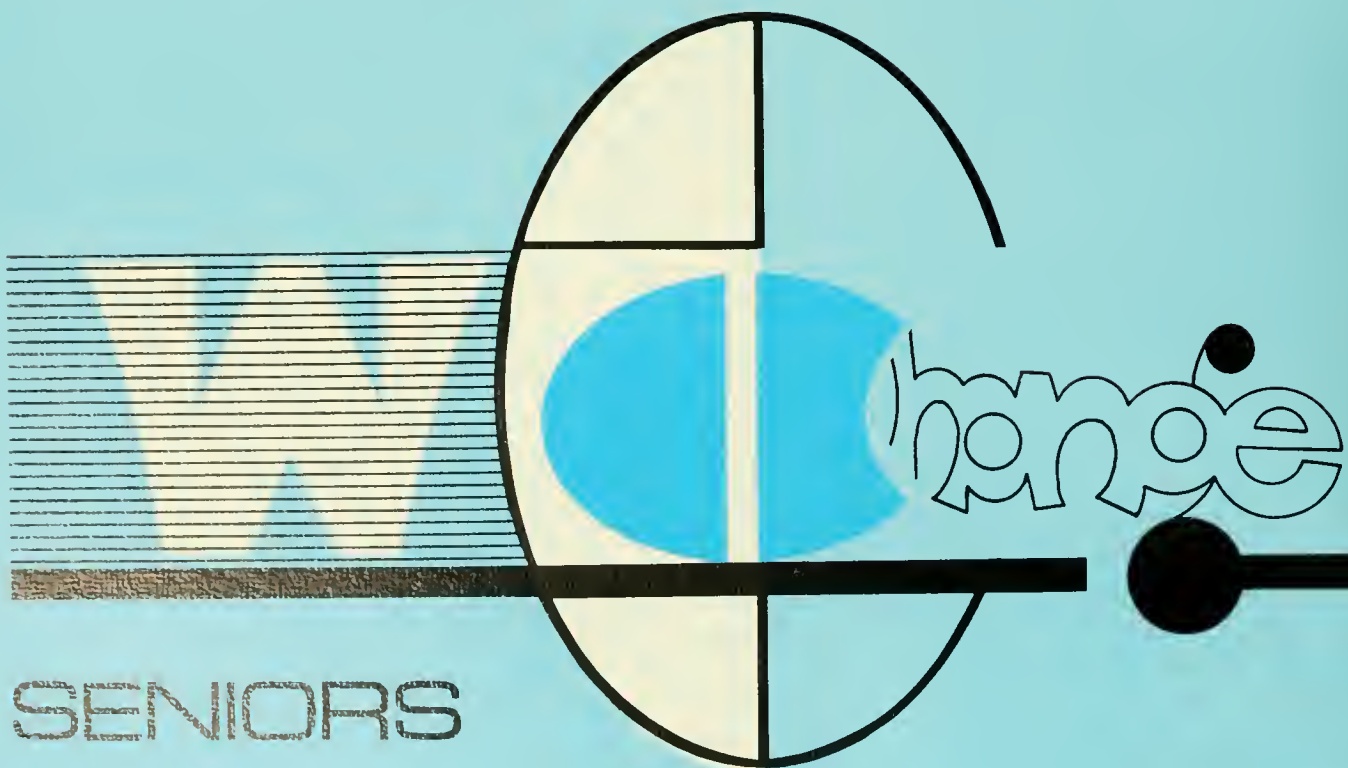

The Executive Council endeavored to promote good fellowship and hardy spirit.

The Soul of '71 and the Spirit of "Peter Pan" combined to achieve Rampage success.

Let the great world spin forever down

SENIORS

CLASS OF '70

A long struggle almost over, the final year arrived. What waits ahead, they did not know, but all seniors treasured those last months of student life. The parties . . . projects . . . trips . . . all aided in promoting genuine comradeship among the members of the Class of 1970. The President, Joseph Segilia, Secretary, Anne Sourbeer, Vice-President, John McCool, and Treasurer, Dru Dick, competently organized an outstanding senior year.

Officers of the Class of 1970 . . . originators of the class spirit . . .

The members of the Senior Executive Council planned and effected senior activities.

The Election Committee received and computed ballots for the senior officers.

ACTIVITIES

Senior candidates presented views on government and its function at a Class Forum.

Ro Simanitis was the choice of Seniors for Rampage Queen.

Choosing portraits was a rewarding task.

The class paper kept all Seniors informed.

JUNIOR PROM

The elegant atmosphere furnished by the Marriott Motor Inn . . . the eager participants supplied by the Class of 1970 . . . it's Junior Prom Night . . . a cool spring night . . . moonlight . . . stars . . . music . . . Steve Fritz, Class President crowning lovely Debbie Tillman . . . a Queen and her Court . . . memories . . .
